

Paintings Photography

If I had to describe myself with one word it would be artist - a visual artist and an artist with words. My artwork is included in Ohio Online Visual Arts Registry. I'm working with various galleries in the Midwest to promote my oil paintings and abstract light photography.

Focusing on Photography

Looking beyond the already rich arts traditions within our region, Cincinnati photographers, gallery owners, museums and other public institutions have organized an expansive event related to the fine art of imaging – FOTOFOCUS. With a multiple week regional series of exhibitions, events, and lectures at more than 70 venues at major museums, galleries and universities, FOTOFOCUS is setting a high standard with the inaugural program – scheduled to be a biennial arts powerhouse.

Scheduled for the month of October, with some exhibitions extending to the end of the year, the diversity of images and photographic styles is astounding. Most exhibitions can be viewed FREE of charge at some point during the month and public bus tours of Cincinnati art galleries have been organized. FOTOFOCUS has attracted and is a sponsor for Continuum, the 2012 Society of Educators Regional Conference. On the national level, attention is being generated with a New York Times insert and by the high quality of the images, the reputation of the photographers, and curiosity about the arts scene in Cincinnati.

Member Since 2003

As a travel writer it is my responsibility to select the best places, events, and experiences to present to you. Most travel has been on my own though some has occurred on sponsored press trips. Travel listings here will be more informal than my published articles.

Educators, collectors, academics, students, and the lovers of all forms of photography are being offered a tempting buffet of images, concepts and ideas that is sure to stimulate discussion and spark creativity in ways that will enrich this year's FOTOFOCUS events and those in 2014 and into the future. We are talking excitement here, in Cincinnati, my home town. It will be a busy month for me – so much to see! Visit the FOTOFOCUS web site for more information, lots of information.
